B. Oregon Disability Services	Les shared information on Oregon Disability Services. Question from Sarah: is there advocacy work being done to offset proposed cuts to Developmental Disability Services? Les: yes, but still unclear since the budget came out so recently. I’m hoping there’s a plan!		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Closed <input type="checkbox"/> F/U Required <input type="checkbox"/> Approved
III. Open Forum
A. Word on the Street	Kat shared information on the Innovation Conference on January 30th. Kat shared information on the work at Umpqua Health being done to address habilitative therapy access work Sarah W reported that Douglas CARES has some construction delays, but they plan on moving in by the end of the year and will OHSU has finalized cancer control plan! And they’re looking for partnerships to address disparities (specifically in liver cancer) and to address cervical cancer access challenges. The work is just starting, and they do have some remaining funds for community partners who are interested in engaging in work on HPV vaccine as cancer prevention. If someone is interested in applying for funds, they can reach out to Sarah for more information. There is a free CHW cancer training – contact swansosa@ohsu.edu for more information.
